TPP OUT OF THE SHADOWS!

The Trans-Pacific Partnership is a massive new free trade agreement being negotiated behind-closed-doors in Leesburg, Virginia from September 6 – 15. Transnational corporations want to use the TPP to:

- Offshore good-paying jobs to low-wage nations and undercut working conditions globally
- Create new tools for attacking environmental and consumer safety policies
- Deregulate Wall Street banks, hedge funds and insurance companies
- Further concentrate global food supplies, displacing family farmers and subjecting consumers to wild price fluctuations
- Lengthen patents thereby blocking access to affordable, generic medications

Our best chance of preventing a “NAFTA on Steroids” is to come together now and drag the TPP out of the shadows. Approximately 600 corporate lobbyists have been given “cleared advisor” status in the TPP negotiations, but the general public has been barred from even reviewing what U.S. negotiators are proposing in our names.
